announce FREE PUBLIC TEACHINGS

His Eminence Tulku Neten Rinpoche

The Head Lama-Abbot of Jungpa Monastery in Lithang, Tibet.
Founder and Abbot of Jam Tse Cho Ling Dharma Centre in Toronto and Jam Tse Cho Ling Tibetan Buddhist Temple in Calgary.

The Neten Rinpoche's lineage can be traced back to the 11th Arhat named Lam Tran Ten Pharpa LamChung (Sanskrit name: ChudaPantaka). Pharpa Lamchung reincarnated many times in India as Mahasiddha Bodhisattvas and later in Tibet as one of the six disciples of the Great Lama Je Tsongkhapa, named Neten Kunga Bum, who built the Jungpa Monastery in Tibet. In 1986 His Holiness the Dalai Lama recognized the present His Eminence Tulku Neten Rinpoche as the 9th reincarnate Head Lama-Abbot of Jungpa Monastery in Lithang, Tibet.

His Eminence has achieved the highest Geshe Lharampa Degree (Ph.D in Buddhist Sutra Studies) at SeraMey Monastic University, India, and the advanced degree of Ngagrampa (Highest degree in Tantric Studies) from the Gyumed Tantric Monastery for Higher Tantric Studies. His Eminence became the Discipline Master of the Gyumed Tantric Monastery and afterward taught at both Gyumed Tantric and SeraMey Monasteries. In 2006 His Eminence moved to Canada and rebuilt the Jungpa Monastery in Tibet which has previously been destroyed.

His Eminence travels extensively across the globe giving public talks and teachings to religious, educational, healthcare and social institutions.
