

JAM TSE CHO LING Tibetan Buddhist Temple is honoured to announce FREE PUBLIC TEACHINGS by our founder
H. E. TULKU NETEN RINPOCHE

In 1986 His Holiness the Dalai Lama recognized the present Rinpoche as the 9th reincarnate of Tulku Neten Rinpoche, Lama-Abbot of Jungpa Monastery in Lihang, Tibet. There were sixteen renowned Arhats in India, Rinpoche's lineage can be traced back to the 11th Arhats named Lam Tran Ten Pharpa LamChung (Sanskrit name: ChudaPantaka). He reincarnated many times in India as Hasidim Bodhisattvas and later in Tibet as one of the six Neten disciples of the Great Lama Je Tsongkhapa, named Neten Kunga Bum, who built the Jungpa Monastery.

Rinpoche secured the highest Geshe Lharampa Degree (Ph. D in Buddhist Sutra Studies) in SeraMey Monastic University, India, he then received the advanced degree of Ngagrampa (Highest degree in Tantric Studies) from the Gyumed Tantric Monastery for higher Tantric studies. He then taught at the Gyumed Tantric Monastery and also accepted the position of Discipline Master. Later he went back and taught Dharma at the SeraMey University.

Since 2006 Rinpoche has been living in Canada and has rebuilt the Jungpa Monastery in Tibet which had previously been destroyed. He then founded the Jam Tse Cho Ling (Head) Dharma Centre in Toronto, Canada and later the Jam Tse Cho Ling Buddhist Temple in Calgary, Canada.

H.E. Tulku Neten Rinpoche travels extensively across the globe giving public talks and teachings to religious, educational, healthcare and social institutions. For more information visit: www.jamtsecholing.org
